

8TH JUNE 2016

FLOWER POWER AT BIKINI BERLIN: CONCEPT SHOPPING MALL PRESENTS FLOWER MARKET

BIKINI BERLIN in full bloom: Following the huge success of the “Garten” flower installation by London artist Rebecca Louise Law, the Berlin Flower Market is taking place at the end of June on the mall’s rooftop terrace.

On 25th and 26th June 2016, BIKINI BERLIN will be coming into bloom. In cooperation with Tollwasblumenmachen.de, the concept shopping mall in the City West will once again be transformed into a sea of flowers. The Flower Market offers visitors to BIKINI BERLIN the opportunity to buy seasonal flowers, to have elaborate arrangements and bouquets made up, to discover floral-related interior, beauty and food products as well as to become florists themselves in workshops where they can let their own creativity run wild.

For the Flower Market the rooftop terrace of BIKINI BERLIN, which overlooks the neighbouring zoo, will be filled with flowers galore. In four different areas the visitors will find beautiful blooms corresponding to the trends “Connect The Story”, “The World Beyond”, “Reconsider Space” and “More is More” at the market stands of various florists and flower suppliers from the region. With ice cream, salads and smoothies, all with a floral touch, visitors will also be given a culinary insight into the array of floral flavours. The workshops are taking place on the ground floor in front of the panoramic window facing the zoo and will be led by experienced florists who, together with the visitors, will be creating individual arrangements and bouquets.
