MORE THAN JUST WRAPPING PAPER:

BIKINI BERLIN IS CELEBRATING CHRISTMAS WITH A PAPER INSTALLATION BY STILLS & STROKES

From Saturday, 26th November, Berlin-based artist duo Stills & Strokes is bringing the joys of Christmas to BIKINI BERLIN: for a space-spanning installation they have created their own BIKINI BERLIN wrapping paper. Over 43 metres of the paper can be admired on the event space as well as in the entrance areas, where it will be getting shoppers into the festive spirit. And customers at BIKINI BERLIN can even take the artistic paper home with them: from 26th November through to 24th December, customers can have their purchases wrapped in the specially designed paper or use it to wrap the gifts themselves – with a choice of three different designs. The gift-wrapping station will be open daily from 10:00 am until 9:00 pm on the ground floor.

About Stills & Strokes

Stills & Strokes are Melanie Homann and Stefan Vorbeck. With their loud, vibrant colours and utmost precision, they put our perceptions to the test by creating their own brightly coloured worlds and, in a tongue-in-cheek way, bringing objects to life in the stories they tell. The artist duo from Berlin uses all kinds of techniques and materials – and is on a permanent quest to find new ways of perceiving and presenting things.
